APOLYTIKIA:

Tone 5

Liturgy Book p. 17

Venerable Father Hilarion the Great

(Tone 8)

Your abundant tears made the wilderness sprout and bloom, and your deep sighings made your labors fruitful a hundred-fold. You became a star shining over the world with miracles, Holy Father Paul. Pray to Christ God that He may save our souls.

KONDAKION:

Liturgy Book p. 21

TRISAGION:

Liturgy Book p. 23

PROKIMENON: Psalm 11:8, 2

(Tone 5)

You, O Lord, will keep us and preserve us.

Stichon: Save me, O Lord, for the godly man has failed.

EPISTLE:

Galatians 6:11-18

Brethren, see with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand! All those who want to please in a human way are forcing you to be circumcised merely to avoid persecution because of the cross of Christ. For not even the circumcised observe the Law: but they want you to be circumcised that they may boast of your subjection to external rites. But as for me, God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision but a new creation is of any account. And whoever follow this rule, peace and mercy be upon them and on God's Israel. From now on, let no man give me trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus in my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

ALLELUIA: Psalm 88:2, 3

(Tone 5)

I will sing of Your mercies, O Lord, forever.

For you have said, "Mercy shall be built up forever."

GOSPEL:

St. Luke 8:27-39

At that time when Jesus came to the country of the Gerasenes there met Him a certain man who for a long time was possessed by a devil, and wore no clothes, and lived in the tombs, not in a house. And when he saw Jesus, he fell down before Him, and crying out with a loud voice said, "What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Son of the most high God? I pray Thee, do not torment me." For he was charging the unclean spirit to go forth from the man. For many times it had laid hold of him; and he was bound with chains and fetters, and kept under guard, but he would break the bonds asunder, and be driven by the devil into the deserts. And Jesus asked him, saying, "What is thy name?" And he said, "Legion," because many devils had entered into him. And they entreated Him not to command them to depart into the abyss. Now a herd of many swine was there, feeding on the mountainside. And they kept entreating Him to give them leave to enter into them. And He gave them leave. And the devils came out from the man and entered into the swine; and the herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and were drowned. And when the swineherds saw what had happened, they fled and reported it in the town and in the country; and people came out to see what had happened. And they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the devils had gone out sitting at His feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. And those also who had seen it reported to them how he had been saved from Legion. And all the people of the Gerasene district besought Him to depart from them; for they were seized with great fear. And He got into a boat and went back. But the man from whom the devils had gone out prayed Him that he might remain with Him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to thy house, and tell all that God has done for thee." And he departed, proclaiming throughout the whole town all that Jesus had done for him.

SAINT JOSEPH CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOOD FESTIVAL NEWS:

We are pleased to announce this year's returns:
 Friday: $2,317; Saturday: $5,930; Sunday: $8,536
 Total: $26,359 - Expenses: $11,560
 Net/profit: $14,798 / 2017: $15,369

We also wish to share with you a bit of correspondence:
 Two Saturday's ago Alicia Patchoski after D. Liturgy told me that she would not be able to act as chairman anymore for the Food Festival.

The following is an email I wrote to her:

"Just wanted to come back to our talk last Saturday.... topics got changed too quickly and I was a bit surprised from your news... which is to say... I did not have the wherewithal to speak what was on my mind at the time.

"Most importantly, thank you for the all the years of service you rendered to St. Joseph Church with regard to the Food Festival. It was so transparent

Just wanted to come back to our talk last Saturday.... topics got changed too quickly and I was a bit surprised from your news... which is to say... I did not have the wherewithal to speak what was on my mind at the time.

"Most importantly, thank you for the all the years of service you rendered to St. Joseph Church with regard to the Food Festival. It was so transparent to me -and I think others - that you took on the responsibility and labored so strenuously (even when family matters and parish troubles weighed upon you) because of a genuine love for God and our small parish, frail as we are. You did the work very well and made it prosper in so many ways.

"Your decision, no doubt, was difficult to make. When you told me about it (it was not quite what I was expecting at the moment); it rung true to me and I was at peace. Though at peace, also sad to have your talent lost in that capacity. I think everyone will agree: after our duties to Almighty God, family comes first. And it is very difficult to raise a Christian family today.

"I can speak on behalf of all the parishioners that we are proud of your work, your achievements and your dedication; and we are grateful for your bearing more than your share of the burden these years."
